

Project Profile

Jews Free School

Client	Jarvis Projects Barclays Business Banking
Client Sector	Education
Project Value	£32m
Services Provided	Project Management Quantity Surveying
Project Size
Architect
Contractors

New build secondary school for London Borough of Brent for use by Jews Free School, procured under PFI.

Rider Levett Bucknall provided Technical Advisor services to the funding bank (Barclays) and Employers Agent services to the SPV (Jarvis Projects).

School Authorities particularly demanding in their requirements necessitating a high degree of design monitoring and feedback. Special attention needed to the particular requirements of the Jewish faith, including specially designed catering facilities and synagogue.

Client Benefits

- Independent contract administration, quality and cost control
- Impartial advice and assistance in problem resolution
- Impartial advice and assistance in problem resolution
- Assistance in meeting particular demands raised by School.