

Project Profile

Bel Air | Hong Kong

Client	Pacific Century Cyberworks Ltd.
Project Value	HKD 7,000 million
Services Provided	Quantity Surveying
Project Size	375,400 m ²
Architect	Wong Tung & Partners Ltd.

Overview

The Cyberport, a project jointly developed by the government and the Pacific CyberWorks Limited, comprises two portions: the Cyberport Portion and the ancillary Residential Portion.

The Residential Portion is Bel Air, a luxurious residential development which is completed in several phases.

Communications Branch and the Information Technology Branch. Special facilities, such as video interview rooms and an identification parade suite, are also incorporated in the design.